

Leaders ...

- Why are recommended changes not happening in the classroom?
- What is resistance and who is resisting?
- Is there a difference between teacher resistance and teacher rejection?
- Is more professional development the answer?
- How do people adopt change?
- As a leader, what do I really need to do?
- Is change truly that difficult to manage?
- Is more teacher evaluation the answer?

Our Overcoming Resistance to Change reveals the secrets to effective change!

School leaders at all levels of the educational system are provided the resources needed to adopt and implement programs and initiatives that produce positive, data supported results!

Overcome resistance from your staff for effective instructional changes that improve student achievement.

Overcoming Resistance to Change workshop provides leaders with:

- Real life scenarios and practical experiences
- Research impediments to change
- Proven ways to ensure adoption and implementation
- How to deal with resistance
- Useful practical forms to support analysis
- Opportunities to discuss and strategize individual issues

Regardless of the point of origination, leaders are able to intentionally and purposefully promote and expand change efforts.

Leadership, time and energy are valuable and scarce commodities.

Time + energy = change. A better phrase might be:

No time + no energy = no change! Even better....

Adequate time + focused energy = desired change!

Our Overcoming Resistance to Change workshop empowers leaders to wisely select and focus their time and energy!
